STATEMENT

NE Colorado Cellular, Inc. ("Carrier") has established operating procedures that ensure compliance with the Federal Communications Commission ("Commission") regulations regarding the protection of consumer proprietary network information ("CPNI").

- As Company never has, nor currently does not, use CPNI for any purposes other than for the provision of Company's core wireless telephony products and services to said customers, it does not collect customer approval for use of CPNI.
- Carrier has in place confidentially policies regarding the appropriate use of CPNI. Employees are trained on this policy, and disciplinary procedures are in place should an employee violate company policies.
- Neither Carrier nor any of its affiliates are engaged in any cross-promotion of any of its products and services via any sales and marketing campaigns, either for itself or on behalf of any third parties. Carrier and its affiliates' sales and marketing campaigns are focused solely on Carrier's wireless telephony products. No third parties have ever had, nor currently have, any access to Carrier's customers CPNI.
- Carrier's sales personnel have not ever, nor currently do, conduct any outbound requests for CPNI approval.
